CAUSE

On August 12, 2008, the offender's parents informed this officer that they would not be able to have their son reside with them. Mrs. Seven is suffering from breast cancer. As a result, this officer contacted the offender at the Federal Detention Center (FDC) at SeaTac on August 28, 2008, and informed him he would need to sign a "Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Supervised Release," since he had no viable home to live at upon his release from FDC SeaTac on September 23, 2008. The offender indicated he understood the rationale behind this modification and subsequently agreed to sign the modification for the Bureau of Prison (BOP) residential reentry center (RCC) placement.

Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision

I have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or my period of supervision being extended. By "assistance of counsel," I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

- 18 You shall reside in a residential reentry center for a period of up to 180 days. This placement may include a prerelease component, day reporting, and home confinement (with or without electronic monitoring, but not to include GPS) at the directions of the CCM and USPO. You shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility. You shall remain at the facility until discharged by the Court.
